

Rights and Responsibilities of the Faculty

Rights

- Identify and establish the abilities, skills, and knowledge that are fundamental to academic programs/courses and to evaluate each student's performance against these standards. Fundamental program and course standards are not subject to modifications, although a student with a disability is entitled to reasonable accommodations to assist him/her to meet the program/course standards.
- Determine which modification/accommodation it will provide the student with the goal of assuring that such modifications/accommodations are effective and to impose reasonable rules for the provision of academic adjustments and auxiliary aids.

Responsibilities

- Has the responsibility to make reasonable modifications for a student with a disability with respect to the adaptation of the manner in which specific courses are conducted.
- Select and administer tests used to evaluate students so as to best ensure that test results accurately reflect aptitudes or competencies and do not discriminate against a student with a disability. Tests designed to measure specific skills related to fundamental standards are allowable even when those skills are impacted by the disability.
- Has the responsibility to evaluate students in a nondiscriminatory manner.
